

Mouth & Teeth

MassageNerd.com

Across

- 1 get their name because, as the last teeth to erupt, they break through when a person is becoming an adult and is supposedly wiser.
- 5 formed in the top of the lip as either a small gap or an indentation in the lip
- 6 condition in which the two plates of the skull that form the hard palate (roof of the mouth) are not completely joined.
- 7 squarish, sharp-edged teeth at the front and middle of the mouth
- 10 located on either side of the uvula and look like twin pillars holding up the opening to the pharynx.
- 12 common form of mouth ulcer that girls get more often than guys.
- 14 innermost portion of the tooth
- 18 hardest tissue in the body, covers the crown.
- 21 To the sides of the incisors are the long, sharp _____, two on the bottom and two on the top.
- 22 disease affects the gums and tissues supporting the teeth.
- 23 The _____ forms a curtain between the mouth and the throat
- 24 Behind the canines are the _____
- 25 inflammation of the gums characterized by redness, swelling, and sometimes bleeding
- 26 dangling fleshy object at the back of the mouth
- 28 situated behind the bicuspid, have points and grooves.
- 29 Humans are _____, meaning that they develop two sets of teeth.
- 30 fancy way of saying chewing

Down

- 2 small, painful ulcers inside their mouths that may decrease their desire to eat and drink, putting them at risk of dehydration.
- 3 The first set of teeth, the _____ teeth are also called the milk, primary, temporary, falling-off, or baby teeth.
- 4 covered with skin on the outside and with slippery mucous membranes on the inside of the mouth
- 8 major lip muscle
- 9 Under the gum line, a bony layer of _____ covers the outside of the root and holds the tooth in place within the jawbone.
- 11 painful, clustered blisters inside the mouth or on a person's lip.
- 13 Three pairs of _____ glands in the walls and floor of the mouth secrete saliva
- 14 set of 32 _____ teeth, which are also called secondary or adult teeth.
- 15 the gums loosen around the teeth and pockets of bacteria and pus form, sometimes damaging the supporting bone and causing tooth loss.
- 16 The mouth is lined with _____ membranes
- 17 The bacteria digest the carbohydrates in the food and produce acid, which dissolves the tooth's enamel and causes a _____
- 19 It is the _____ that gives the tooth its slightly yellowish tint.
- 20 failure of the upper and lower teeth to meet properly when you bite down.
- 27 A bundle of muscles extends from the floor of the mouth to form the _____